Terms & Conditions

1. Internship Period & Structure

The internship shall be for a structural duration of six (6) months, commencing from 12/06/2026. The engagement consists of a three (3) month unpaid phase followed by a three (3) month stipend-backed phase. Any subsequent extension or continuation shall remain solely at the discretion of CloudWent based on business requirements and performance evaluation.

2. Nature of Internship

This internship is provided for educational, training, and professional development purposes. The intern shall work on real-world engineering projects, technical systems, research, software development, and collaborative product development initiatives under the supervision of CloudWent.

3. Work Mode and Availability

The internship shall follow a Remote + Hybrid work model (Bhopal). The intern shall maintain timely communication, attend assigned meetings, and remain reasonably available during project collaboration hours.

4. Compensation & Stipend Model

As an early-stage startup environment, CloudWent structures compensation dynamically across milestones. Months 0 to 3 are structured as unpaid training. Upon entering Month 4, the intern will be eligible for a fixed stipend of ₹2,000 per month through Month 6. No alternative salary, reimbursement, or employment benefits shall be applicable unless explicitly communicated in writing.

5. Pre-Placement Opportunity (PPO)

Upon the successful completion of the full six (6) month tenure, the candidate will be reviewed for a Pre-Placement Opportunity (PPO) to transition into regular employment. Regular PPO release remains strictly contingent on exceptional technical delivery, task completion, and collaborative conduct during the active engagement framework.

6. Notice Period and Termination

Either party may terminate the internship by providing a minimum one (1) month written notice.

CloudWent reserves the right to terminate the internship by issuing a one (1) month notice period at its sole discretion based on business requirements, project restructuring, organizational changes, or performance concerns.

Additionally, CloudWent may terminate the internship with immediate effect and without prior notice in cases involving:

- Misconduct or unethical behavior
- Breach of confidentiality
- Unauthorized access or misuse of company systems
- Non-performance or repeated inactivity
- Violation of company policies
- Harassment, abuse, or inappropriate behavior
- Unauthorized sharing of source code or company information

The intern may voluntarily discontinue the internship by providing a minimum one (1) week written notice.

7. Ownership of Work / Intellectual Property

All software, source code, APIs, repositories, infrastructure, documentation, databases, systems, product ideas, architecture, technical assets, internal tools, business logic, designs, research, inventions, and any work created, modified, contributed to, or developed during the internship shall remain the sole and exclusive intellectual property of CloudWent.

The intern acknowledges and agrees that all work performed during the internship belongs exclusively to CloudWent and shall not be considered personal property.

8. Restriction on Personal Use of Company Code

The intern shall not copy company code for personal projects, reuse systems externally, open-source proprietary company repositories, or create duplicate competing networks. Any unauthorized extraction of intellectual assets will invite formal legal remedies.

9. Confidentiality Agreement (NDA)

The intern agrees to maintain strict confidentiality regarding all proprietary elements, including repository access, architecture designs, API security keys, strategy documentation, and private workspace data during and after the internship tenure.

10. Repository and System Access

All access granted to Git repositories, servers, cloud infrastructure, CI/CD pipelines, dashboards, and internal collaboration modules remains the absolute property of CloudWent and may be revoked at any juncture without prior notification.

11. Certificate and Release Actions

Final formal release of the Internship Completion Certificate and Performance-based Letters of Recommendation are managed explicitly against the execution of assigned duties. CloudWent reserves the absolute operational discretion to withhold completion elements if core performance requirements aren't fulfilled or early resignation disrupts critical sprints.

12. Return of Company Materials

Upon completion or termination of the internship, the intern shall immediately cease access to all company systems and return/delete all confidential files, code, credentials, internal resources, and proprietary information belonging to CloudWent.
